HCAS Board of Directors welcomes new members

At the Society's 103rd Annual General Meeting this evening, Mark Quann, Chair of the HCAS Board of Directors, announced the election of Anya-Deane Best and Orlena Cain for two year terms to the HCAS Board of Directors. Sandra Lewis-den Otter is the appointee of the Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte.

"We're very pleased to welcome Anya-Deane, Orlena and Sandra to the Society's Board of Directors," said Quann. "Each of them brings unique insights, skills and knowledge to the table and their diversified backgrounds fields will prove invaluable to the Society's board and the children and families we serve."

Long standing retiring board members, Janet Richardson and Ann Brant, were awarded a Honorary Membership to Hastings CAS, in recognitions of their distinguished service to the Society. Also retiring from the Society are John Bonn and Matt Sager.

The HCAS Board of Director's new executive for 2010/2011 is:

Chair: Mark Quann
Vice-Chair: John Murphy
Treasurer: Rick Helman
Secretary: Rev. Dr. Bill Smith
